ANNOUNCEMENTS
Miss M. C. Adles will be in Norwich all this week. See adv.

THE AUDITORIUM.
"It is to laugh," will be the motto for the week at the Auditorium, three out of the four acts being comedy. Miller and Russell in their laugh-producing skill. The Luntatic and the Girl will head the list, and if advance reports of this act are correct the act is a hummer. Wilson and Mac in their Bunch of Nonense will keep things livened up, and Gordon and Keys will entertain with their ragtime singing and dancing. The only act not depending on comedy is Al. Allen, the Music Master, who plays seven different instruments in as many minutes.

The feature motion picture is "The Temptation," a very strong dramatic comedy from the Edison studios. A subject film that is a howl from start to finish is "A Dangerous Pair," featuring a newly married couple on their honeymoon and through an anonymous letter each thinks the other a subject of filth; the humorous possibilities of this subject matter are imagined. Other features are "The Egyptian Mystery," The Coupon Craze, and others.

BROADWAY THEATER.
Treats Negro with Fairness.

The clamor over "The Clansman" which comes to the Broadway theater on Monday, September 27, has been high, but careful critics are pointing out that it treats the negro with fairness. It shows us the intellectual negro in the lieutenant governor of South Carolina, the faithful and loyal blacks in Uncle Nelse and Mammy Ewing, together with the baser types, such as the sheriff Aleck and the militiaman Gus. All this in a setting of the historical reconstruction period, which the play portrays with accuracy and fidelity, while it brings before the spectator the awesome ritual and wonderful achievements of the Ku Klux Klan.

"The Best of All."
The Gage Stock company assuredly deserves the right to be called "the best of all" in the repertoire. They enjoy the distinction of playing to the highest average gross receipts of any popular price attraction. This has always been rendered possible by the fact that this company always gives satisfaction always presenting a carefully selected list of plays, producing the same in a praiseworthy manner. New and interesting vaudeville and approved by her father. One day while alone, the young square is abducted by three cowboys, who know of her knowledge of the right secret mine. Her lover finds one of the cowboys' sombrero, realizes the exact nature of the situation and starts in not pursuit, but acting unable to secure a horse, he resorts to running, for which he is famous. He overtakes the cowboy carrying the square on his saddle, and leaping upon the horse one of the fiercest battles ever seen is fought with the horse carrying three people and galloping at breakneck speed across the mountains. The cowboy is finally killed and drawing the horse to a standstill the Indian (summons) and tenderly lifts the frightened square and carries her to the wigwam.

BREED THEATER.
"The Indian Runner's Romance," a Thrilling Western Episode.

This week's bill at the Breed theater contains three feature pictures, besides the usual novelties in the line of comic and comedy pictures. "The Indian Runner's Romance" is perhaps the most thrilling, as it carries a sensational story of the days of "49" showing a diving miner, who with a secret claim, that is rich with gold deposits, to an old Indian. The Indian falls in love with a Blue Cloud, a pretty young square, proposes to her with the pretty custom of the blanket, symbolizing protection. He is accepted and approved by her father. One day while alone, the young square is abducted by three cowboys, who know of her knowledge of the right secret mine. Her lover finds one of the cowboys' sombrero, realizes the exact nature of the situation and starts in not pursuit, but acting unable to secure a horse, he resorts to running, for which he is famous. He overtakes the cowboy carrying the square on his saddle, and leaping upon the horse one of the fiercest battles ever seen is fought with the horse carrying three people and galloping at breakneck speed across the mountains. The cowboy is finally killed and drawing the horse to a standstill the Indian (summons) and tenderly lifts the frightened square and carries her to the wigwam.

Warning to Shaw.
Now that George Bernard Shaw has said he does not like Theodore Roosevelt the hide of the playwright may be looked for some day at the Smithsonian Institution, in a large box marked "T. R."—Denver Republican.

The Easier Job.
Dr. Cook has doubtless arrived at the conclusion that it is easier to reach the North pole than to convince scientists of the fact—Philadelphia Ledger.

Do It Now
Have that old-fashioned, unsanitary plumbing replaced by new and modern open plumbing. It will repay you in the increase of health and saving of doctor's bills. Overhauling and resetting thoroughly done. Let me give you a figure for replacing all the old plumbing with the modern kind that will keep out the sewer gas. The work will be first-class and the price reasonable.
